Eric Hennessy, Head Coach

Values like humility, pride and servant leadership are at the core of which first year Head Coach Eric Hennessy see's as the foundation for Newington Football. "We want to be the program that has an unmatched work ethic and competitiveness, a program the community can be proud of". For his players, Hennessy will look to instill the following order of priorities – " family, education, football and self. If we follow that, we will have success not only on the field but also in all other aspects of our lives."

Football Camp

The Newington Youth Football Camp was established to provide your son with an atmosphere and activities that will assist him in becoming a better football player and athlete.

The goal of the coaches is to create a fun, informative and challenging football camp that will improve skill level while becoming more excited about the GREAT game of football.
