

Teen One Read: The Poet X

Lucy Robbins Welles Library, the Hill-Stead Museum, and other local libraries are partnering to offer you a program series based on Elizabeth Acevedo's The Poet X.

Teen Book Discussion

Wednesday, July 24, 6:30 - 8:30 p.m.

Located in the Hill-Stead Museum's Makeshift Theater. Come discuss The Poet X, a National Book Award winner, and meet teens from other towns. Discussion will be led by poetry teacher Dana Moore. Registration is required.

Teen Poetry Slam

Wednesday, August 7, 6:30 - 8:30 p.m.

Located in the Hill-Stead Museum's Makeshift Theater. Share or hear poetry from local teens! Registration is required.

Sunken Garden Poetry Festival for Young Poets Day

Sunday, August 11, 5:00 - 8:00 p.m.

See Elizabeth Acevedo, the author of The Poet X, at this special event! Festival entrance is free for anyone under age 18. Adults can pay a $15 entrance fee online at the Hill-Stead Museum's website or $20 at the gate. Parking is free. Picnics are welcome but food can also be purchased from festival vendors. Guests bring their own chairs and blankets and choose a spot among the flower beds. Please contact Lauren Miller, millerl@hillstead.org, with questions.

HILL-STEAD MUSEUM

All of these programs are happening at the Hill-Stead Museum in Farmington, located at 35 Mountain Road, Farmington, CT.
